

SoTL Dissemination Fund Call for Applications

The SoTL Dissemination Fund supports dissemination activities of faculty and their TRU research assistants. Applicants may only receive the travel award a maximum of once every two years. Priority for this fund is given to faculty that have completed the New SoTL Scholars Program and have not previously received support from the dissemination fund.

Value of the Award

Travel grants are awarded for up to $1000. Details on what expenses are eligible for this grant are provided in the SoTL Grant Funding Guidelines document, available on CELT’s website.

Reporting Requirements

Grant holders will be required to provide a report on their dissemination activity. The report is due 6-weeks after the approved dissemination activity. Researchers that do not submit their reports to CELT in a timely manner will not be eligible for future awards.

How to apply?

Faculty in tenured, tenure-track, or LTC (bipartite & tripartite) positions are invited to submit a completed application form (available on CELT’s website). Applications are accepted on an on-going basis each year until the fund is exhausted. Applications not funded in one review period may be held for consideration in a subsequent review.

Application Deadline*	Notification Timeline
February 1, 2025	February 14, 2025
May 1, 2025	May 16, 2025
November 1, 2025	November 14, 2025

If the deadline falls on a weekend, applications will be accepted until the end of day on the next business day.*

For more information, contact Dr. Diane Janes or Dr. Alexis Brown (CELT Coordinators) or Dr. Brett McCollum (Director of CELT).

What other funding opportunities are there for faculty interested in SoTL?

Faculty new to the field of SoTL are encouraged to apply for the New SoTL Scholars Program, which includes additional supports and training. Researchers experienced at conducting and disseminating SoTL scholarship are invited to apply to the Established SoTL Scholars Fund.